

From: Eric Holle
To: Julie Cozzi
Subject: Fw: Re: S2,S3,AH4 were not unanimous
Date: Saturday, December 10, 2016 10:01:24 AM

Hi Julie,

I'm sending the following thread between Ron Jackson and I to see if you can pursue his suggestion.

Eric Holle

--- On Sat, 12/10/16, Ron Jackson <rjackson@haines.ak.us> wrote:

> From: Ron Jackson <rjackson@haines.ak.us>
> Subject: Re: S2,S3,AH4 were not unanimous
> To: "Eric Holle" <banjorebop@yahoo.com>
> Date: Saturday, December 10, 2016, 8:56 AM
> Hi Eric. You bring up a > valid point. Also, Lori Smith is bringing up a similar > point.
> It would be good to get this to julie > so the assembly so it will be in our packet. There may be > something that can be done to resolve the issues brought up > by you both.
>
> Ron Jackson
> Haines Borough Assembly
> 907-314-2046
>
>
> On Dec 9, 2016, at 11:27 AM, Eric Holle <banjorebop@yahoo.com> > wrote:
>
>
>> Hi Bill > and Ron,
>
>
>> It > appears to me that between the deliberations of the map > committee, what was forwarded to the manager, and the > manager's recommendation, there was a bit of a > disconnect. The "unanimous" decisions regarding S2 > and S3 were contingent upon further review of these areas > with direct input from ADF&G. This did not happen. The > areas should not be recommended.
>
>
>> Similarly, with AH4, the original proposal > was shrunken but a landing zone that was over 1500 meters > from known winter goat sites was not clearly established.
> Sean Brownell was supposed to further adjust his boundaries > while conferring with ADF&G. To the best of my > knowledge, this did not occur.
>
>
>> Thank you,

>> Eric
> Holle